SEASON NOTES

- Archive record, reconstructed for the studio's files.
- Only Quiet Bloom was offered in the Statement size; Veiled Citrus and Olive Air ran Petite and Signature only.
- Spring stem costs run materially below fall — the same build prices roughly 15–20% cheaper in May than in October.

PALETTE I

Veiled Citrus

Soft yellow, cream, fresh green

STYLE

The brightest of the spring three. Butter-yellow ranunculus and French tulips against cream, lifted with jasmine vine for scent and trailing line. Sweet pea softens the edges. Built light and high-shouldered — this one should look like it is still opening.

PALETTE II

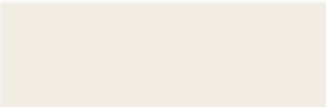

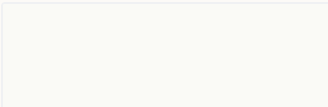

Olive Air

Muted olive, ivory, soft white

STYLE

The quiet one, and the direct ancestor of Fall's Olive Smoke. White hellebore and white ranunculus on olive branch, with nothing louder than ivory anywhere in it. Sculptural, tonal, generous with space. Sold best to clients who had already bought from us once.

PALETTE III

Quiet Bloom

Blush, dusty rose, soft neutrals

STYLE

The best seller, and the only palette we ran in Statement. Blush garden roses layered over dusty rose and soft neutrals, with scabiosa for texture and airy movement through the top third. Romantic without being sweet — the taupe is what keeps it adult.
